Hamburg puzzle - references

Can you recognize all the spots? Each number on the image corresponds to a reference below.

References

1. Reeperbahn
center of the red light and entertainment district in St. Pauli, home of notorious parties

2. Große Freiheit part of "Reeperbahn", known for its music bars and drag shows (see 30)

3. Millerntor Stadium
St. Pauli's football stadium

4. Feldstraße Bunker former World War II flak tower now turned into a cultural center with a green rooftop garden and hotel

5. Heinrich-Hertz-Turm
Hamburg's television tower is an integral part of its skyline

6. Hamburger Dom
large fun fair that takes place three times a year

7. Planten un Blomen famous 45-hectare city park right in the heart of Hamburg, featuring a beautiful Japanese garden and a roller-skating rink

8. Binnenalster
artificial lake in the historic heart of Hamburg, known for its famous fountain and Alster boats, as well as for being home to the Alster swans

9. Kennedy Bridge
major road and pedestrian bridge that spans the Alster River and separates the Inner Alster (Binnenalster) from the Outer Alster (Außenalster)

10. Hotel Atlantic known not only for its prestigious location overlooking the Alster, but also as the home of musician Udo Lindenberg (see 35)

11. Lange Reihe St. Georg
the colorful and lively main street of Hamburg's St. Georg district is the hub of the city's LGBTQ+ community—featuring many rainbow flags and traffic lights with same-sex pictograms

12. Hamburg Central Station the busiest railway station in Germany, around 500.000 passengers a day

13. Alsterhaus
large luxurious department store and famous landmark

14. Chilehaus
an iconic, ten-story office building in Hamburg, built in the early 1920s, that resembles a massive ocean liner made of dark brick—a prime example of Hamburg Brick Expressionism

15. Hamburg City Hall
the seat of state government of Hamburg

16. Hamburger Michel
the most significant Baroque church in Northern Germany

17. Dancing Towers famous quirky building, marking the entrance of the "Reeperbahn"

18. Park Fiction
plastic palm trees, a grassy magic carpet, and a breathtaking view of the harbor—infused with the freedom-loving spirit of St. Pauli

19. Fish Market
to buy fish and get yelled at in the morning on the way home from "Reeperbahn"

20. Landungsbrücken sailors arrived here in the past, now its mostly for tourist ferries. Beware of seagulls (see 52)

21. Baumwall / U3 bridge most iconic part of Hamburg's subway system

22. Speicherstadt
the largest historic warehouse-complex in the world

23. Elbphilharmonie
the city's new landmark, modern corcert halls inside

24. Jan Fedder Promenade pedestrians loiter here and eat "Fischbrötchen" (see 55), beautiful view over the harbour

25. Cap San Diego
historic ice-breaker, now an escape room

26. Rickmer Rickmers traditional sailing ship now firmly anchored as a floating landmark of Hamburg

27. Hotel Hafen Hamburg historic building, today a hotel

28. Harbor
Hamburg's port, with container cranes, a shipyard, ships, ...

29. Ferry with "Lion King" Design this ferry is a shuttle to the Lion King Musical

30. Olivia Jones
famous drag queen who shapes the face of the "Reeperbahn"

31. Walter Frosch
soccer player known for carrying a pack of cigarettes on the pitch

32. Hans Albers
the voice of the "Reeperbahn", every Hamburgian knows his songs

33. Karl Lagerfeld with his cat Choupette world enowned fashion designer

34. Nena
pop musician, famous for "99 red balloons" (99 Luftballons)

35. Udo Lindenberg
rock musician

36. Helmut and Loki Schmidt both were big figures in politics and public life, he even was Federal Chancellor of Germany

37. Samy Deluxe
some say Germany's best rapper

38. Jan Delay
hiphop producer and rapper

39. Ina Müller
entertainer with her Shanty Choir "De Tampentrekker" performing at Schellfischposten

40. Klaus Störtebeker famous pirate

41. Harry Rowohlt
translated Winnie the Pooh to German

42. Jan Fedder
popular TV-actor eating a "Fischbrötchen" (see 55)

43. Silver Man Living Statue classic street art

44. Zitronenjette
sold lemons in the 1850s, one of the first to do so. Became an icon of folklore

45. Fritz Schumacher architect who played a decisive role in shaping the typical Hamburg brick look

46. Johannes Brahms world famous composer

47. "Aale Dieter"
the most famous of the market barkers yelling at you at the fish market (see 19)

48. OZ Graffiti
sprayer legend to be found everywhere in Hamburg

49. Cosplayer
gather in the japanese garden at "Planten und Blomen"

50. Drag Queens integral part of every day life in Hamburg

51. Quattro Staffel
keeping the main station safe

52. "Pommes Möwe"
sassy gull with an apetite for fries

53. Film Shooting "Notruf Hafenkante"
TV-series about cops, filmed in the center of Hamburg

54. Franzbrötchen
a sweet, cinnamon-laced pastry that has become the heart and soul of Hamburg's culinary identity

55. Fischbrötchen
a very typical Northern German snack: a simple yet delightful sandwich that features fresh fish varieties, usually raw